PRESIDENT PARSONS
WAS MISINFORMED

THE PUBLICATION OF HIS LET-TER WAS UNAUTHORIZED.

Highly Indignant That It Should Have Been Given Out for Publication—Accepted the Explanations Offered in Regard to the Archbishop. Said He Was Misinformed Regarding True State of Affairs and Promises That the Parade Will Not Be Disrupted.

John H. Phillips, president of the local branch of the Letter Carriers' association, and Michael H. O'Malley, a member of the association, who left the city on Sunday evening to confer with National President Parsons, of New York, in regard to the objection raised by the latter with reference to the work done upon the arches on Washington avenue, returned home last evening on the 8:45 train, after having satisfactorily convinced Mr.
Parsons of the justness of their position. When seen by a Tribune man last evening they made a statement concerning this conference.

They saw Mr. Parsons, who is also the master workman of the Knights of Labor, at his office on One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, yesterday morning. They have shown one of the Scranton Sunday papers containing a copy of his letter and expressed him-selves as being not only exceedingly surprised but also highly indignant that it should have been given out for publication without his consent.

PUBLICATION UNAUTHORIZED.

He stated that, as was his custom, he gave a copy of the letter to Mr.
Hammis, who waited upon him and presented the grievance of the local labor men, but that he gave him no authority whatever to publish it, unless Mr. Phillips desired to have it done.

When shown the letters from Mr.
Richards and from the secretary of the local Electrical Workers' union, and after the question had been thoroughly explained to him, he said that he did not consider that either the general committee or the letter carriers themselves could be held to account at all.
He said that he had been misinformed on the subject.

He further stated that he could reassure the letter carriers and citizens of this city that there would be no hitch whatever and that the parade would be carried out as planned.

The following is an exact copy of the letter written by the secretary of the Electrical Workers' union:

National Brotherhood of Electrical Workers of America, Local No. 31, Scranton, Pa., Aug. 27.
Mr. John M. Parsons, President National Letter Carriers' Association, New York.
Dear Sir: We will state for the benefit of Mr. Richards that he has employed men from our local and as far as we know is in favor of union labor.

B. E. Hackett, Secretary.

W. K. Clearwater, President.

ANOTHER ILL EFFECT.

The unfortunate agitation of this question has caused a number of persons to be a little timid about decorating their buildings, they fearing that either the parade would not transpire or that it would prove to be a fiasco.
It is sincerely hoped by the members of the general committee and by the letter carriers themselves that the statement made by President Parsons will have the effect of counteracting this timidity and that everyone throughout the length and breadth of the city will endeavor to do all in their power towards making the biggest convention in the history of the city a huge success.

Messrs. Phillips and O'Malley report that the enthusiasm among the letter carriers in Greater New York regarding the convention is increasing day by day and that there will be over 2,500 men in line from that city alone.
They also learned that the last delegation is due to arrive in this city a few minutes after 3 o'clock, so that the parade can be started promptly at 4.

BEAT OUT THE ORDINANCE.

George W. Brown Replaces the Market Street Watering Trough.

When the pave on East Market street was commenced the old fountain erected by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, several years ago, was torn out and as there were no funds in the society's treasury to replace it in good condition, it was thrown one side and lay there for some time.

The people who found it a great convenience for watering their animals concluded to replace it and got an ordinance started in council to fix it up, but the ordinance never got through select council and the people residing in the vicinity of Market street got discouraged and gave up in despair until at last Mr. George Brown took the thing in hand and last night a force of men, under the direction of Frank Oliver, placed the fountain in position in front of Thompson's drug store and turned the water on.

The Lackawanna society should tender Mr. Brown a vote of thanks.

Circular Issued to Various Societies

by Marshal McCoy.

Grand Marshal Peter F. McCoy, who has charge of the Catholic Total Abstinence union parade which will be held in this city on Oct. 10, has issued a circular to the officers and members of the societies connected with the Scranton diocese.

The circular asks for information as to the number of societies that will be in line and the probable strength as to numbers, uniforms, music, etc., in the parade. A request has been made that each society elect an aid to the grand marshal and the necessity of informing the marshal regarding plans contingent for the parade.

Marshal McCoy and the committee from St. Peter's society will hold a conference Thursday evening at St.
Peter's hall, Bellevue, relative to the parade which will be held on Oct. 10.

DR. CRAFTS' ENTERTAINMENT.

Opening Night Witnessed a Very Large Attendance.

Dr. Wilbur F. Crafts opened the first of his series of unique entertainments last night at Guernsey's hall with an audience which crowded the auditorium to the doors. The entertainment parades somewhat of the nature of "Miss Jerry," being a story illustrated by pictures but carrying the idea still farther as the views given by the stereopticon are frequently due reproductions of famous paintings, bits of travel, sculpture and portraits, while intervals of appropriate music add a charm to the whole.

The story deals with a young man who has become a doubter and whose sweetheart is a Christian. His struggle with unbelief and love are graphically portrayed. He renounces the lady and starts for Cuba, landing on an Anthony Hopkin sort of an island, where he succeeds in disturbing the faith of a Hebrew naturalist, who has made a paradise there. The plot revolves around a pledge for mutual search for truth made by the two men, and is deeply interesting. Dr.
Crafts reads the story in an excellent descriptive manner.

The musical part of the programme was furnished by Miss Blanche Crafts in violin solos, with Mrs. P. P. Price as accompanist. The story will be continued this evening with additional features of interest. It is expected that a larger hall will be secured. The entertainment is certain to receive great patronage.

THAT NAY AUG LOOP.

Mayor Moir Calls a Joint Convention of Councils to Take Action on the Renewal of Operations.

The mayor was presented with the following petition on Saturday last signed by fourteen members of both branches of council:

To the Honorable James Moir, Mayor.
We, the undersigned members of the select and common council, petition your honor to restrain the Scranton Traction company from laying their tracks on Mulberry street and Arthur avenue until such time as the ordinance now pending in council is passed giving them the privilege to lay the said tracks.

The petition was signed by ten members of the select council and four members of common council, as follows: Select council—Messrs. Melvin, Shea, Thomas, Schneider, O'Boyle, Schroeder, Kearney, Frable, Ross, Mc-Andrews. Common council—Messrs.
F. W. Ziegenfuss, Fred Phillips, W. J.
Smith, E. J. Coleman.

Yesterday the mayor decided to call councils together "to consider and give an expression on the matter." The call is made for tonight.

The company commenced laying the track last May, but was prevented from continuing the work by order of the mayor.

In 1885 the company was granted a franchise for two years, but did not commence operations in the following two years, thereby forfeiting the franchise. It made no effort to have it renewed until it was nearly first stopped the work. An ordinance is now on the common council calendar renewing the franchise.

The company's contention is that as the city has never opened the street it is city property only on paper and that as it has permission from the Lackawanna Iron and Coal company, the owners of the land, to lay the tracks, the city, therefore, has no say whatever in the matter.

Mayor Moir is not opposed to the laying of the tracks, but under the circumstances feels that he should ask council to share the responsibility permitting the company to go upon the street when there is a dispute as to whether or not it is a legal right there.

The company is working day and night on the Mulberry street portion of the loop.

PECKVILLE OUTRAGE
MAY BE AVENGED

THREE YOUTHS ARRESTED FOR
THE BASE CRIME.

One of Them Was the Son of the Constable Who Was Working on the Case—The Two Men Who Are Accused of the Fiendish Part in the Crime Are Yet at Large—Hunt, the Victim, Is in a Precarious Condition at the Carbonade Emergency Hospital.

Thomas Goynes and Barney Mehan, of Peckville, and Samuel O'Boyle, of Jessup, were arrested by Constable William Goynes yesterday on the charge of having been implicated in the robbery of William Hunt, who is now at the Carbonade hospital suffering from injuries received in a runaway accident on Saturday evening.

The arrest of the young men was due to remarks of young Goynes, who is a son of the constable. He made a statement to the effect that in company with companions he had covered an intoxicated man up with a blanket whom they had found lying at the roadside late at night on their return from a hotel where they had been spending the evening.

Nothing was thought of the matter until the article concerning Mr. Hunt's condition appeared in The Tribune yesterday. Upon ascertaining the facts as they were given in The Tribune, Constable Goynes procured a warrant from Justice of the Peace Arnold and arrested the parties above mentioned.

HELD TO RAIL.

At a hearing before the justice the three men were held to bail in the sum of $500 each to appear a further inquiry before the magistrate this evening.

At the hearing in Squire Arnold's office the parties testified that the three men under arrest in company with Mike Kearney and John Mackey had been passing the evening at Price's hotel. About 2 o'clock Sunday morning Mehan, Kearney and Mackey started for home. They discovered Hunt lying helpless by the side of the road. Mehan states that Kearney held his hat over the wounded man's face while Mackey went through his pockets. Mehan sat on the bank during the operation and claims that he did not know what they were doing.

According to testimony, however, the three men repaired to a dark place near the Delaware and Hudson station after the robbery and divided the spoils. Mehan received 25 cents of the $4.50 taken from Hunt's pockets and Mackey and Kearney got the rest.
The trio then visited another all-night hotel and invested the greater part of their booty in filling up the flowing bowl.

HAD A SUPPOSITION.

About two hours later Goynes and O'Boyle left Price's hotel for home and, hearing Hunt's cries for help as they passed the spot where he lay, went to the man's assistance. They supposed that it was a case of intoxication and that Hunt was not severely injured. They unhitched the horse and tied him to one of the wheels of the wagon and placed the cushion of the seat under the man's head and covered him up with the blanket and proceeded upon their homeward journey.

From the testimony at the hearing it would appear that all parties must have been under the influence of liquor to a greater or less extent.
Kearney and Mackey, the only persons implicated directly in the robbery by the testimony, are still at large. The parties are all employed about the mines in the vicinity of Peckville.

HUNT'S CONDITION.

Hunt's condition is considered by the physicians at the Emergency hospital in Carbonade to be extremely serious.

His spine is fractured at the seventh vertebrae and his lower limbs are both paralyzed. He is also suffering from exhaustion, due to lying in the rain for several hours on Sunday morning, and from painful and dangerous lacerations of the head and face caused by the horse's hoofs.

TOM DUNN TO THE RESCUE.

Saves Baltimore Belle at Atlantic City from Watery Grave.

The following dispatch was received at The Tribune office last night:

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 28.—Thomas Dunn, of Scranton, Pa., distinguished himself on the beach today by making one of the most heroic rescues of the season.

The rescued party was Miss Lou Mc-Donald, of Baltimore, who is well known in social circles in the Orle city.
Miss McDonald, who is quite proficient in the art of swimming, ventured out too far and getting caught in the current near the end of the steel pier, was unable to return. She was seen floating in the water, and Mr. Dunn immediately started to her aid. He reached her in time, however, for she was about to sink from exhaustion.
Mr. Dunn grabbed her by the shoulder with his left arm while the other arm was used to pull her to the beach.
As he reached the strand a number of the large crowd that witnessed the exciting episode took occasion to congratulate the hero of the rescue.

The young lady was so exhausted that she had to be assisted to the bath house.

O'MALLEY DIDN'T SUCCEED.

Tried to Clean Out a Depot but Was Taken in Tow by the Law.

Thomas O'Malley, of North Washington avenue, while under the influence of liquor, attempted to clean out the depot for a few minutes at the Erie and Wyoming depot yesterday afternoon.
He commenced operations by indulging in an exhibition of boxing with several men on the platform. After he had polished off two or three and successfully cleared the platform he proceeded to the waiting room.

In the meantime police headquarters were notified and the patrol wagon arrived upon the scene just as O'Malley had been overpowered. It took five men to hold him, so frantic were his struggles. He will be given a hearing this morning in police court.
